PHOTOGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

LUI-CHIA-TSUI SHIPYARD, SHANGHAI, CHINA

This report presents the results of a photographic analysis of the area known as Lui-Chia-Tsui Shipworks, Shanghai, China. The yard is located on the Huang-pu-Chiang at the extreme tip of Postung Point (31°44'25"N-121°29'15"E).

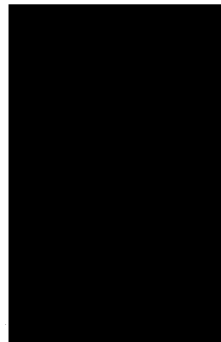

The analysis of this area is based on photo missions flown

25X1D

[REDACTED] The comparative dates do not reveal any major change in the capabilities in function of the shipyard. This installation seems to be equipped for and concerned exclusively with the maintenance and repair of small craft: lighters, barges, possibly tugs, and small river and coastal vessels. There are no indications of vessel construction.

Annex 1 to this report presents a location and layout overlay of the shipyard. Buildings as presented on the overlay, their possible purpose and size are as follows:
